

Important Information for completing your Tax Return

If you are an individual lodging an Australian Tax Return, Questions 12, 18 and 19 of your Tax Return Supplementary Section will apply and Sections I and D of your Tax Return must be completed.

The information on your Tax Statement and the notes on this leaflet, will help you to answer these questions.

Please note that any other non-primary production trust distributions and any other assessable foreign source income which you have derived should be added to the amounts you have received from the Trust and the total income for each category should be included in your Tax Return.

You must report all of the assessable distributions in your Tax Return. The tax advantaged component is not assessable for income tax purposes so you need not include it in your Tax Return.

Dear Westfield America Trust Member,

We are pleased to enclose your Tax Statement and this Tax Return Guide for the year ending 30 June 2003, which contains information you need to complete your 2003 Tax Return. This Tax Return Guide should be used in conjunction with TaxPack 2003 and assumes you are an Australian resident, individual taxpayer holding units in the Trust and that you have no foreign assets or other investments from which foreign income arises.

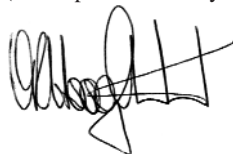

Please note that the Trust's year end for taxation purposes is 31 December. Accordingly, the distribution for the six months ending 30 June 2003 to be paid in August 2003 should be included in your 2004 Tax Return.

The information in this Tax Return Guide summarises potential taxation aspects of your investment in Westfield America Trust, based on an assumed set of circumstances which may not necessarily be applicable to you. Accordingly, this information should not be relied upon as taxation advice. If you require further information relating to your personal tax position we recommend that you contact your accountant or taxation adviser.

Thank you for your continued support of Westfield America Trust during the year.

Yours faithfully,

WESTFIELD AMERICA MANAGEMENT LIMITED
(as Responsible Entity of Westfield America Trust)

Victor P Hoog Antink
Director, Funds Management

Question 12 - Tax Return (Supplementary Section)

Non-primary production income, i on your Tax Statement, includes Australian Interest Income and Other Australian Taxable Income. This amount should be included at U. If you have incurred any deductible expenses in deriving this income you should include the total of those expenses at Y. The amount of TFN withholding tax deducted from your distribution (if any), ii on your Tax Statement, should be included at R.

Question 18 - Tax Return (Supplementary Section)

The answers to I, W & J in Question 18 assume that you have no foreign assets or other investments from which foreign income arises other than your investment in Westfield America Trust. If this is correct, you should answer "NO" at I, "NO" at W and "NO" at J, on your Tax Return (Supplementary Section).

Question 19 - Tax Return (Supplementary Section)

Assessable foreign source income, iv on your Tax Statement, includes the sum of the Foreign Dividend Income amount and the Foreign Tax Credit amount. This amount should be included at E. Follow steps 1-3 at Part C of the instructions to Question 19 on page S24 of the TaxPack 2003 (Supplement) to calculate the amount of net foreign source income you have derived. The amount of the net foreign source income you calculate should be included at M. For these purposes the Foreign Dividend Income, on your Tax Statement, is classified as 'modified passive income'. The foreign tax credits relate solely to Foreign Dividend Income.

As foreign tax has been withheld from the Foreign Dividend Income, you may be entitled to a foreign tax credit to the value of the amount at iii on your Tax Statement. You should obtain a copy of the booklet "How to Claim a Foreign Tax Credit" from the Australian Taxation Office and follow the steps set out in the booklet. Please note that for the purposes of calculating foreign tax credits the Foreign Dividend Income is classified as "passive income".

Australian resident members will generally be able to claim a foreign tax credit for the lesser of:
(a) the amount of US withholding tax paid (the Foreign Tax Credit amount at iii on your Tax Statement); and
(b) the Australian tax payable on the net foreign source income.
The amount of the foreign tax credit you calculate that you are able to claim should be included at O.

The answer to P in Question 19 assumes that you have no foreign assets or other investments from which foreign income arises other than your investment in Westfield America Trust. If this is correct, you should answer "NO" at P. Should this not be the case, please refer to Part F of the instructions for Question 19 on page S25 of the TaxPack 2003 (Supplement).

* See the notes to Question 19 above to determine the amount to be included at M.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR AUSTRALIAN RESIDENT UNITHOLDERS

Capital Gains Tax Implications of the Tax Advantaged Component

The tax advantaged component of your distribution will reduce your cost base in the units in calculating any capital gain or capital loss for capital gains tax purposes. You make a capital gain (even if you do not sell your units) if the sum of the tax advantaged amounts received is more than the cost base of the units at the end of the income year. The booklets "Guide to Capital Gains Tax" or "Personal Investor's Guide to Capital Gains Tax" which are available from the Australian Taxation Office provide details of the calculations required.

Unitholders Who Have Disposed of Units During the June 2003 Financial Year

If you have disposed of any of your units during the past financial year, you may have made a capital gain or loss. You should obtain a copy of the booklet "Personal Investor's Guide to Capital Gains Tax" or alternatively, "Guide to Capital Gains Tax" from the Australian Taxation Office and/or consult your professional tax adviser.
